Section 2-1. Complaints, investigation of public nuisance

When any conditions in violation of this article is found to exist. The Code Enforcement Officer or such persons as may be designated by the Town council shall give notice to the owner or the premises to abate or remove such conditions within ten (10) days of receiving said notice. Such notice shall be in writing, shall include a description of the premises or property sufficient for identification, and shall set forth the violation and state that the violation must be corrected within ten (10) days. The town may proceed to correct the same as authorized by this section. Service of such notice shall be by any one of the following methods

- 1. By delivery to anyone personally or by leaving the notice at a place of abode of the owner with a person over the age of 18 years and a member of the family of the owner
- 2. By mailing a notice by registered or certified mail in the United States Postal Service mail addressed to the owners last known address. When service is attempted by registered or certified mail, a copy of the notice may also be sent by regular mail.

3. By posting and keeping posted for ten days, a copy of the notice in a placard form, in a conspicuous place on the premise on which the violation exists, when notice cannot be served by methods #1 or #2 of this subsection.

Section 2-2. Abatement Procedure (and rights to appeal)

If the owner of any property fails to comply with a notice given pursuant to this section, within ten days after the service of this notice. He shall be subject to prosecution for violation of this article in accordance with law and each day that such failure continues shall be a separate offense.

Any person having been ordered to abate such a public nuisance, shall have the right to appeal such order within three (3) days of said notice and order (as herein provided) by giving written notice of said appeal to the Town Administrator (who shall hear said appeal upon three (3) days' notice to the Code Enforcement Officer or other designated person and appealing party and either affirm, reverse or remand the order of the code enforcement officer after hearing such appeal).

If any person, having been ordered to abate such a public nuisance, fails to abate or remove the conditions constituting the nuisance within ten (10) days from the receipt of the order (or within ten (10) days after said order has been affirmed (if an appeal was taken), the code enforcement officer shall cause the condition to be removed or otherwise remedied by having employees of the Town go onto the premises and remove or otherwise abate the nuisance under the supervision of an employee designated by the Town Administrator: in lieu of or addition thereto, the code enforcement officer may exercise any other reasonable means to abate such nuisance.

The cost incurred by the Town in removing or otherwise remedying a public nuisance shall be paid by the property owner. Furthermore, the property owner may, in writing and within the time allowed by this section, request that the Town remove or abate the condition, the cost of which shall be paid by the property owner or person making the request.

It shall be the duty of the Town Administrator or other designated person to mail a statement of the charges to the owner or other person in possession of the premises with the instruction that the charges are due and payable within thirty (30) days from the receipt thereof.

If charges for the removal or abatement of a public nuisance are not paid within thirty (30) days after receipt of a statement of charges, such charges shall become a lien on the land or premises where the public nuisance existed and shall be collected as unpaid taxes.

Section 2-3. Procedure is alternative

The procedure set forth in this article shall be in addition ~~that~~ to any other remedies that may now or thereafter exist under law for abatement of the nuisance. And the article shall not prevent the town from proceeding in a criminal action against any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this chapter as provided in G.S. 14-4. In addition to the remedies provided for herein, any violations of the terms of this article shall subject the violator to the penalties and remedies, either criminal or civil or both, as set forth in the general penalties ordinance of the town.

Section 2-4. Penalty

- (A) Any owner or persons of any property who fails to comply with any order of the code enforcement order to remedy any problems or nuisances covered by this article, within the time specified by this article, within the time specified in the order, shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of twenty five dollars ($25.00) per day after the tenth day of non-compliance (following the specified time period) until the property is brought into compliance with the order, with a maximum civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500.00)

Notwithstanding the above provisions, in the event of a second violation by any person or entity within any twelve (12) calendar month period after a prior violation under this article (or similar ordinance) the code enforcement officer shall levy an additional civil penalty in an amount of fifty ($50.00) per day after the tenth day of non-compliance, with a maximum penalty of five hundred dollars ($500.00).

The notice given to violators required in section 2-1 is modified as set forth for chronic violators. A chronic violator is a person who owns property whereupon, the town gave notice of violation at least three (3) times, within the calendar year, under any provision of the public nuisance ordinance. The town may notify a chronic violator of the town's public nuisance ordinance that, if the violator's property is found to be in violation of the article, the town shall, without further notice in the calendar year in which notice is given, take action to remedy the violation, and the expense of the action shall become a lien upon the property and shall be collected as unpaid taxes. The notice shall be sent by certified mail.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, in the event of a third violation by any person or entity within any twelve (12) month period after prior violations under this ordinance (or similar ordinance) the code enforcement officer shall levy an immediate civil penalty in an amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00) after the tenth day of non-compliance.

- (B) Penalties are subject to appeal to the Town Board by giving written notice of appeal to the Town Administrator.
- (C) If a higher penalty is set out in this article, the higher fine or penalty shall apply.
